

"Noel can always bring a smile to my face with her wonderful sense of humor and her smiling face. I cannot think of a more deserving person for WOE. She has worked hard through the years for WBSN and is a wonderful asset to our group." Rebecca Maddux

"Having Noel as a friend is like having a butterfly gently land on the tip of your nose, pause to give you a chance to drink in its beauty, then softly lift off and leave you in its gentle wake with a comforting sense of being whole with yourself in the world." Marilyn Drane

"Congratulations, Noel. You are a ray of sunshine and so deserving of this honor!" Peggy Floyd

"Here is my thoughts on Noel: I would have to say that Noel is the friendliest and outgoing person I know. When I was new to WBSN I was nervous that I would not make friends easily because of my age. Noel just walked right up to me and introduced her self. She has an aura around her that just draws you in. I also happen to see her passion about WBSN when she voiced her opinion about getting the group back on track. She is also one of the only people in the group that I feel comfortable goofing out like a 20year old in front of because I swear she is 21 at heart. Se is also one of those women that at first glance has average looks, but once she opens her mouth she becomes this beautiful, intelligent, crazy woman. The kind of woman that you would want to stay up all night partying with. If everyone had a person like Noel in their life the world would be a much friendlier place." Heather Soell

"Noel is like a drop of golden sun." Janet Rahrig

"Noel ... a notably upbeat businesswoman who finds joy in jobs well done for her clients and in providing worthwhile employment for her staff." Sally Andrews

"Congratulations Noel! What a deserving person. Not only is Noel incredibly fun, but she is involved in her successful business, the community, saving animals, and in every organization she is associated with. Her heart goes out to everyone she comes in contact with. I am proud to have her as a friend." Nadia Troutenko

"Noel Rocks!!!" Bitsy Cleveland

"A few thoughts about Noel Paden our Woman of Excellence. She brings a ray of sunshine to all she meets as well as being a wonderful business woman. The way that she sees all as opportunities rather than problems is inspiring. Congratulations Noel... You deserve this recognition." Caitlin Prescott

"As long as I've know Noel, she's had a smile that just won't quit. She's the type of person that exudes friendliness, excitement, and warmth. What a hard worker she is.....when she sets her mind to accomplish something, it really happens. Noel, I am proud to have you as a friend. You are truly deserving of this honor!" Marty Buck
